California law requires your employer to provide and pay for medical treatment if you are injured at work. Your employer has chosen to provide this medical care through a Medical Provider Network (MPN) which is a compensation physician network called a Medical Provider Network (MPN). This MPN is administered by CompWest Insurance Company. Your employers’ workers compensation carrier is CompWest Insurance Company. Your employers’ workers compensation carrier is CompWest Insurance Company. The MPN is the source for all MPN information, referrals and advice. It is your responsibility to know the MPN program and describes your rights in choosing medical care for work-related injuries and illnesses. What is a MPN? A Medical Provider Network (MPN) is a group of health care providers (physicians and other medical providers) used by your employer to treat workers injured on the job. Each MPN is comprised of a mix of doctors specializing in work-related injuries and doctors with expertise in general areas of medicine. MPN providers are required to have a choice of a provider.

CompWest Select MPN CompWest Insurance Company provides access to medical treatment through CompWest Select MPN. MPN providers are chosen from a network through selected Anthem Blue Cross PPO (Blue Cross of California) providers and the Kaiser-As前提条件

ID#: 0079

How do I find out which doctors are in my MPN? The MPN contact list in this notification will be able to answer your questions about the MPN and will help you obtain a regional list of all MPN doctors in your area. At minimum, the regional list must include a list of all MPN providers who are available to treat you for work-related injuries and illnesses within a reasonable geographic area to a covered employee, then the employer may obtain necessary ancillary services outside of the MPN within a reasonable geographic area.

What standards does the MPN have to meet? The MPN has providers for the entire state of California. The MPN must give you a list of at least three physicians to choose from for each part of your treatment. The MPN must give you a list of at least three doctors who can treat you. The MPN may also give you up to ten doctors in the MPN network. The Medical Access Assistant for assistance in finding a physician or for additional information.

If an employee has a work-related non-emergency injury or illness outside of the service area, the employer should notify the employee and seek treatment at the closest occupational health or primary care clinic to the job site. If the employee is out of state or out of the country, the employer should seek medical attention from the nearest hospital or urgent care center.

Once the employee is stable, the employer should report his or her injury/illness within 24 hours of receiving treatment.

Once the injured employee returns to the service area, medical care will be transferred to a provider within the MPN.

What if I have questions or need help? For a copy of the entire transfer of care policy in English and Spanish, ask your MPN contact. What if I disagree with my doctor about medical treatment? If you meet certain conditions, you may qualify to continue treating with a non-MPN physician, and your primary treating physician must receive a letter of notification.

For a copy of the entire transfer of care policy in English and Spanish, ask your MPN contact.

What if I disagree with my doctor about medical treatment? If you are a current employee living in a rural area or temporarily working or living outside the MPN service area, or you are a former employee permanently living outside the service area of the MPN or your treating doctor will provide you a list of at least three physicians who can treat you. The MPN may also give you up to ten doctors in the MPN network. The Medical Access Assistant for assistance in finding a physician or for additional information.

If an employee has a work-related non-emergency injury or illness outside of the service area, the employer should notify the employee and seek treatment at the closest occupational health or primary care clinic to the job site. If the employee is out of state or out of the country, the employer should seek medical attention from the nearest hospital or urgent care center.

Once the employee is stable, the employer should report his or her injury/illness within 24 hours of receiving treatment.

Once the injured employee returns to the service area, medical care will be transferred to a provider within the MPN.

What if I disagree with my doctor about medical treatment? If you disagree with the doctor you choose, you may choose another doctor within the MPN. If you disagree with the doctor chosen by your employer, you may seek a second opinion to the MPN's choice of doctor. If you choose a doctor outside the MPN, you must choose a second or third opinion from the referred physicians. Referred physicians will be located within the geographic area of the MPN. Your employer does not have to cover a non-MPN doctor outside the MPN geographic service area from choosing a non-MPN provider.

What if I need a specialist not in the MPN? If you need to see a type of specialist that is not available in the MPN, you have the right to see a specialist outside of the MPN.

On the day of your injury, the employer will provide you with a list of MPN medical providers. Once your condition is stable, contact the Medical Access Assistant. Your primary treating physician has 20 days from the date of your request to agree or disagree with the request. If your primary treating physician does not agree, you are eligible to have a second opinion.

If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receiving the regional provider list, you will not be allowed to have a second or third opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment of this treating physician.

If you disagree with the doctor you choose, you may choose another doctor within the MPN. If you disagree with the doctor chosen by your employer, you may seek a second opinion to the MPN’s choice of doctor. If you choose a doctor outside the MPN, you must choose a second or third opinion from the referred physicians. Referred physicians will be located within the geographic area of the MPN. Your employer does not have to cover a non-MPN doctor outside the MPN geographic service area from choosing a non-MPN provider.

What if I need a specialist not in the MPN? If you need to see a type of specialist that is not available in the MPN, you have the right to see a specialist outside of the MPN.

On the day of your injury, the employer will provide you with a list of MPN medical providers. Once your condition is stable, contact the Medical Access Assistant. Your primary treating physician has 20 days from the date of your request to agree or disagree with the request. If your primary treating physician does not agree, you are eligible to have a second opinion.

If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receiving the regional provider list, you will not be allowed to have a second or third opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment of this treating physician.

If you disagree with the doctor you choose, you may choose another doctor within the MPN. If you disagree with the doctor chosen by your employer, you may seek a second opinion to the MPN’s choice of doctor. If you choose a doctor outside the MPN, you must choose a second or third opinion from the referred physicians. Referred physicians will be located within the geographic area of the MPN. Your employer does not have to cover a non-MPN doctor outside the MPN geographic service area from choosing a non-MPN provider.

What if I need a specialist not in the MPN? If you need to see a type of specialist that is not available in the MPN, you have the right to see a specialist outside of the MPN.

On the day of your injury, the employer will provide you with a list of MPN medical providers. Once your condition is stable, contact the Medical Access Assistant. Your primary treating physician has 20 days from the date of your request to agree or disagree with the request. If your primary treating physician does not agree, you are eligible to have a second opinion.

If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receiving the regional provider list, you will not be allowed to have a second or third opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment of this treating physician.

If you disagree with the doctor you choose, you may choose another doctor within the MPN. If you disagree with the doctor chosen by your employer, you may seek a second opinion to the MPN’s choice of doctor. If you choose a doctor outside the MPN, you must choose a second or third opinion from the referred physicians. Referred physicians will be located within the geographic area of the MPN. Your employer does not have to cover a non-MPN doctor outside the MPN geographic service area from choosing a non-MPN provider.

What if I need a specialist not in the MPN? If you need to see a type of specialist that is not available in the MPN, you have the right to see a specialist outside of the MPN.

On the day of your injury, the employer will provide you with a list of MPN medical providers. Once your condition is stable, contact the Medical Access Assistant. Your primary treating physician has 20 days from the date of your request to agree or disagree with the request. If your primary treating physician does not agree, you are eligible to have a second opinion.

If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receiving the regional provider list, you will not be allowed to have a second or third opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment of this treating physician.

If you disagree with the doctor you choose, you may choose another doctor within the MPN. If you disagree with the doctor chosen by your employer, you may seek a second opinion to the MPN’s choice of doctor. If you choose a doctor outside the MPN, you must choose a second or third opinion from the referred physicians. Referred physicians will be located within the geographic area of the MPN. Your employer does not have to cover a non-MPN doctor outside the MPN geographic service area from choosing a non-MPN provider.

What if I need a specialist not in the MPN? If you need to see a type of specialist that is not available in the MPN, you have the right to see a specialist outside of the MPN.

On the day of your injury, the employer will provide you with a list of MPN medical providers. Once your condition is stable, contact the Medical Access Assistant. Your primary treating physician has 20 days from the date of your request to agree or disagree with the request. If your primary treating physician does not agree, you are eligible to have a second opinion.

If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receiving the regional provider list, you will not be allowed to have a second or third opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment of this treating physician.

If you disagree with the doctor you choose, you may choose another doctor within the MPN. If you disagree with the doctor chosen by your employer, you may seek a second opinion to the MPN’s choice of doctor. If you choose a doctor outside the MPN, you must choose a second or third opinion from the referred physicians. Referred physicians will be located within the geographic area of the MPN. Your employer does not have to cover a non-MPN doctor outside the MPN geographic service area from choosing a non-MPN provider.

What if I need a specialist not in the MPN? If you need to see a type of specialist that is not available in the MPN, you have the right to see a specialist outside of the MPN.

On the day of your injury, the employer will provide you with a list of MPN medical providers. Once your condition is stable, contact the Medical Access Assistant. Your primary treating physician has 20 days from the date of your request to agree or disagree with the request. If your primary treating physician does not agree, you are eligible to have a second opinion.

If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receiving the regional provider list, you will not be allowed to have a second or third opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment of this treating physician.

If you disagree with the doctor you choose, you may choose another doctor within the MPN. If you disagree with the doctor chosen by your employer, you may seek a second opinion to the MPN’s choice of doctor. If you choose a doctor outside the MPN, you must choose a second or third opinion from the referred physicians. Referred physicians will be located within the geographic area of the MPN. Your employer does not have to cover a non-MPN doctor outside the MPN geographic service area from choosing a non-MPN provider.